Title IX: 2-Part Webinar Series

Once the live date has passed, these webinars will be available on demand.

Webinar 1: How To Navigate Intersecting Areas Of Federal Law: Title IX, VAWA & The Clery Act Thursday, August 9 ~ 3:00-4:00pm (Eastern)

Title IX and VAWA has been on the minds of many administrators tasked with ensuring that their institution remains in compliance with the federal regs. To complicate matters, many new professionals may not fully understand what the basic compliance requirements for Title IX, VAWA/Campus SaVE and the Clery Act are. They may understand their immediate area, but they may not have been trained on other important intersecting areas of federal law or even realize that those intersections exist. Unfortunately, many institutions have approached compliance with areas using a “siloesd” approach.

Title IX, VAWA and the Clery Act are three completely different laws designed to do very different things. This webinar will explain those differences in a way that will allow institutions to present training, programming and awareness in a more concerted and efficient manner, through a base knowledge of these laws and their accompanying regs.

Webinar 2: Responding To Negative Comments On Social Media: Title IX & Free Speech Implications Friday, September 21 ~ 1:00-2:00pm (Eastern)

College and universities are struggling with how best to respond to complaints by faculty and students about social media posts and the negative impact it has on their ability to be successful on campus. During this webinar, the presenter will discuss best practices for responding to student and faculty complaints about social media posts by other members of the community and the ways in which administrators can effectively respond.
